DOSTOEVSKY STUDIES

JOURNAL OF THE
INTERNATIONAL
DOSTOEVSKY SOCIETY

CURRENT BIBLIOGRAPHY

Compiled and edited by June Pachuta Farris

The Current Bibliography attempts to be the most complete and up-to-date international bibliography of recent Dostoevsky research published. It has been the intention of the compilers that the Current Bibliography, when used as a supplement to the preceding issues of the IDS Bulletin and Dostoevsky Studies, be as nearly inclusive as possible of all material published from 1970 to the present year. It is our aim for the bibliography to eventually be exhaustive. Consequently, the latest year is usually the least represented and the earlier years become more and more complete as time goes by. In general, we can say that over a three to four year period, the entries for the first of these years will be nearly complete.

In addition to including dissertations from North American and European universities, citations for Soviet dissertation abstracts (avtoreferaty) are included. These abstracts, anywhere from 10-50 pages in length and often including extensive bibliographies, can be extremely useful, especially since copies of the dissertations themselves cannot be exported from the Soviet Union. To borrow or purchase a microfilm copy of avtoreferaty or rukopisy (unpublished manuscripts deposited with the Fundamental'naiia Biblioteka Instituta nauchnoi informatsii po obshchestvennym naukam Akademii nauk SSSR), one should apply directly to:

Every attempt has been made to provide full, clear citations and a special effort has been made to keep together all citations by one author, disregarding variations in spelling and transliteration which can occur when publishing in a variety of languages. When the spelling of an author's name has deviated considerably from its original form, the original form is given in brackets. Likewise, any additional information which is not a part of the citation, but which may provide some clarification of the topic in question is given in brackets after the citation.

Readers are encouraged to forward items which have thus far escaped listing to the editor at the following address:
