CURRENT BIBLIOGRAPHY

The Current Bibliography is the most complete and up-to-date international bibliography of recent Dostoevsky research. Compilers for this issue include: Roberta W. Goldblatt, Bloomington, Indiana, responsible for languages of the Soviet Union, including Emigré, Professor June Pachuta of the Special Languages Library of the University of Illinois, responsible for publications in East European languages, and Sue Vest McCallum of The University of Tennessee Library, responsible for Western, Non-Slavic languages.

The editors regret that due to the pressures involved in meeting new deadlines for the publication of the first volume of the "Yearbook", the Current Bibliography is not as extensive as it usually is. This shortcoming will be rectified in the next volume.

As before, the Current Bibliography continues in the format introduced in 1975 and is divided into the following sections:

- I. Western Non-Slavic Languages
- II. Languages of the Soviet Union, including Emigré
- III. East European Languages

It has been the intention of the compilers that the Current Bibliography, when used as a supplement to the preceding issues of the IDS "Bulletin", be as nearly inclusive as possible of all material published from 1970 to the present year. It is our aim for the bibliography eventually to be exhaustive. Consequently, the latest year is usually the least representative, and the earlier years become more and more complete as time goes by. In general, we can say that over a three to four year period the entries for the first of those years will be nearly complete.

Colleagues are encouraged to forward items which have thus far escaped listing and new sources as they are discovered to:
