

CURRENT BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography this year is considerably expanded. This is due to the fortunate fact that Ms. June Pachuta of the Special Languages Library, University of Illinois, and Mr. Douglas Freeman of the University of Tennessee Library have joined our staff to aid in the preparation of the annual Current Bibliography. They will be working with Mr. Michael Schatoff and the Assistant Editor in compiling bibliographies for future editions.

The expanded Current Bibliography has made it necessary to adopt a new form. Beginning with this issue, the bibliography will be divided into the following sections:

- I Western Non-Slavic languages (compiled by M. Rice)
- II Soviet Union and Emigré (compiled by D. Freeman and M. Schatoff)
- III East European languages (compiled by J. Pachuta)

The Assistant Editor, under whose general direction the bibliography is compiled, would like to express his appreciation to the many colleagues from North America and abroad who contribute items for inclusion in the annual bibliography. In particular Professor S. V. Belov of the U.S.S.R. has been of considerable help by contributing many of the most current works to appear in the Soviet Union. The Editor of the Bulletin, Professor Rudolf Neuhäuser, has also afforded us considerable assistance as have Docent Erik Egeberg of the University of Tromsø, Professor F. Kautman of Prague, Professor S. Linnér of Åbo, and many others.

Since the founding of the Bulletin, the term "Current Bibliography" has meant from 1970 to the present year. It is our aim for the bibliography eventually to be exhaustive. Consequently, the latest year is usually the least representative and the earlier years become more and more complete as time goes by. In general we can say that over a three to four year period the entries for the first of those years will be nearly complete. The Assistant Editor would appreciate hearing from subscribers concerning omissions.

RETROSPECTIVE BIBLIOGRAPHY

Zapiski iz podpol'ia

The following bibliography is the attempt of Mr. Freeman, Mr. Schatoff, and Professor Rice to provide readers of the Bulletin with a retrospective compilation of works concerning Zapiski iz podpol'ia. Their work has been aided by many members of the IDS who have sent in entries which otherwise might have gone unlisted. The bibliography, however, is by no means to be considered a complete listing.

The difficulties that normally attend such an undertaking were exacerbated by the fact that the Bulletin's place of publication changed this year. The listing is, therefore, not nearly as exhaustive as would be desirable even in an incomplete compilation, and for this the editors offer their apologies.
