

CURRENT BIBLIOGRAPHY

With this issue the editors welcome a new member to our staff. Ms. Gail Aiken of the Department of English of the University of Tennessee has joined Ms. June Pachuta of the Special Languages Library of the University of Illinois, Mr. Douglas Freeman of the University of Tennessee Library, and Mr. Michael Schatoff in the preparation of the annual Current Bibliography. Ms. Aiken is responsible for Prof. Martin Rice's portion of the bibliography during his leave of absence.

The Current Bibliography continues in the format introduced in IDS Bulletin No. 5 and is divided into the following sections:

- I. Western Non-Slavic languages (compiled by G. Aiken)
- II. Languages of the Soviet Union, including Emigré (compiled by D. Freeman and M. Schatoff)
- III. East European languages (compiled by J. Pachuta)

Citations for inclusion in the Current Bibliography were received from many contributors, to whom the compilers extend their thanks. In addition, the Acting Assistant Editor appreciates the comments and assistance received from Professor Rudolf Neuhäuser, Editor of the IDS Bulletin, Docent Erik Egeberg of the University of Tromsø, Professor Malcolm V. Jones of the University of Nottingham, Great Britain, Professor Nadine Natov, Executive Secretary of the the IDS, and many others.

It has been the intention of the compilers that the Current Bibliography, when used as a supplement to the preceding issues of the Bulletin, be as nearly inclusive as possible of all material published from 1970 to the present. Colleagues are requested to forward items which have thus far escaped listing and new sources as they are discovered to:
